Instructions

I, Linda Jordan am over 18 years old, do not suffer from any mental impairment, have personal knowledge of the facts listed below and declare under penalty of perjury:

I used the government run E-Verify System to verify the employment eligibility for Barack H Obama (Obama) and it revealed a "Notice of Mismatch" between Obama's name, birth date and Social Security Number (SSN), compared to the information the Social Security Administration has on file.

I saw Obama's Selective Service Registration (SSR) form which was available on the web at www.sss.gov and copied the SSN Obama used on that form. I also read the reports of licensed investigators Neil Sankey, Susan Daniels and the opinion of retired senior deportation officer of the department of Homeland Security John Sampson, that the SSN Obama was using was fraudulent and/or never issued to him.

Between October 2008 and May 2011, I submitted several requests to agencies and people with the legal responsibility and authority to investigate the use of forged documents and election fraud, concerning Obama's birth records and SSN. (attachment A)

To date no one with the legal responsibility and authority has responded to any of my requests.

I read part of the testimony of Marianna LaCanfora before the Committee on Ways and Means Sub Committee on Social Security in the House of Representatives dated April 14th, 2011. She explained that a SSN in conjunction with a proper identity document determine whether a person is authorized to work. LaCanfora said that the E-Verify system run by the government is a free, Internet-based system that allows employers to electronically verify the employment eligibility of their employees. The Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986 required all employers to verify the identity and employment eligibility of all new employees regardless of citizenship or national origin.

I considered myself to be one of the employers of the President of the United States.

On July 26, 2011, I tried to enroll in the E-Verify System but it required the employer to enter data from their employees I-9 Employment Eligibility Verification Form. I have been unable to locate one for Obama.

On August 17, 2011, I went back on the E-Verify website and saw that there was a "Self-Service" function that was more streamlined and easier to use when checking an employees eligibility. I entered the name Barack H Obama, birth date [REDACTED] and SSN [REDACTED]. This data was entered correctly. The report I got back from the SSA included a "Notice of Mismatch with Social Security Administration (SSA) Records". (attachment B)

I, Felicito Papa, am over 18 years old and resident of 7579 Walden Road, Jacksonville, FL 32244 with FL DL #P100-245-45-082-0. I do not suffer from any mental impairment and I competently attest to the following under the penalty of perjury:

1. I am a professional web developer having graduated with a bachelor's degree in IT from ITT Technical Institute in Indianapolis, IN. I have over ten years of experience of in web designs and development and I have often used software such as Adobe Photoshop and Adobe Illustrator.
2. On April 15, 2010, the Whitehouse website, www.whitehouse.gov, released the 2009 Form 1040 of Income Tax Return of President Barack H. Obama:
<http://www.whitehouse.gov/sites/default/files/president-obama-2010-complete-return.pdf>.
3. I downloaded this 65-page pdf file on my computer. I observed that all information about the president's and the first lady's social security numbers were redacted. All blocks or spaces for social security numbers were blank, or "white-out."
4. I submit Exhibit A (attached herewith, page 43 part of 2009 Form 1040) Form 709 U.S. Gift Tax Return of Pres. Barack Obama. The space for his social security number is redacted or blank.
5. I submit too Exhibit B (attached herewith, page 49 part of 2009 Form 1040) Form 709 U.S. Gift Tax Return of First Lady Michelle Obama. The space for her social security number is redacted or blank.
6. Then through Adobe Illustrator software, I opened Exhibit A and B and found that these two pdf files have two layers each, not just one layer. When the top layer is turned off or dragged away, the social security numbers of both persons are revealed.
7. I submit Exhibit A1 (attached herewith) Form 709 U.S. Gift Tax Return of Pres. Barack Obama with his social security number revealed. The following information are revealed:

1. Barack Obama's SSN [REDACTED]
2. Michelle Obama's SSN [REDACTED]
3. An initial MLO on the side of Form 709
4. A 1/4 inch dark square with notation on it.
5. Preparer's SSN or PIN P00570974
EIN 36-2700600
Phone no. 312/372-0440

8. I submit Exhibit B1 (attached herewith) Form 709 U.S. Gift Tax Return of First Lady Michelle Obama with her social security number revealed. The following information are revealed:

1. Michelle Obama's SSN [REDACTED]
2. Barack Obama's SSN [REDACTED]
3. Preparer's SSN or PIN P00570974
EIN 36-2700600
Phone no. 312/372-0440

9. It is apparent that the tax preparer for Forms 709 of Pres. Obama may have forgotten to lock or flatten the covering top layers before posting them on the Internet. I later noticed that after April 15, 2010, the pdf file posted at the White House has been modified. The top layers on President Obama's Income Tax Return have been locked or flatten and could no longer be dragged out. His SSN and his wife's SSN were no longer visible.

FURTHER AFFIANT SAYETH NOT.

DREAMS FROM MY FATHER

things were okay, Ruth, our new mother, was nice enough to us then. She treated us almost like her own children. Her parents were rich, I think, and they would send us beautiful presents from the States. I'd get really excited whenever a package came from them. But I remember sometimes Roy would refuse to take their gifts, even when they sent us sweets. I remember once he refused some chocolates they had sent, but later in the night, when he thought I was asleep, I saw him taking some of the chocolates that I had left on our dresser. But I didn't say anything, because I think I knew that he was unhappy.

"Then things began to change. When Ruth gave birth to Mark and David, her attention shifted to them. The Old Man, he left the American company to work in the government, for the Ministry of Tourism. He may have had political ambitions, and at first he was doing well in the government. But by 1966 or 1967, the divisions in Kenya had become more serious. President Kenyatta was from the largest tribe, the Kikuyu. The Luos, the second largest tribe, began to complain that Kikuyus were getting all the best jobs. The government was full of intrigue. The vice-president, Odinga, was a Luo, and he said the government was becoming corrupt. That, instead of serving those who had fought for independence, Kenyan politicians had taken the place of the white colonials, buying up businesses and land that should be redistributed to the people. Odinga tried to start his own party, but was placed under house arrest as a Communist. Another popular Luo minister, Tom M'boya, was killed by a Kikuyu gunman. Luos began to protest in the streets, and the government police cracked down. People were killed. All this created more suspicion between the tribes.

"Most of the Old Man's friends just kept quiet and learned to live with the situation. But the Old Man began to speak up. He would tell people that tribalism was going to ruin the country and that unqualified men were taking the best jobs. His friends tried to warn him about saying such things in public, but he didn't care. He always thought he knew what was best, you see. When he was passed up for a promotion, he complained loudly. 'How can you be my senior,' he would say to one of the ministers, 'and yet I am teaching you how to do your job properly?' Word got back to Kenyatta that the Old Man was a troublemaker, and he was called in to see the president. According to the stories, Kenyatta said to the Old Man that, because he could not keep his mouth shut, he would not work again until he had no shoes on his feet.

"I don't know how much of these details are true. But I knew that with the president as an enemy things became very bad for the Old Man. He was banished from the government—blacklisted. None of the ministries would give him work. When he went to foreign companies to look for a post, the companies were warned not to hire him. He began looking abroad and was hired to work for the African Development Bank in Addis Ababa, but before he could join them, the government revoked his passport, and he couldn't even leave Kenya.

"Finally, he had to accept a small job with the World Bank. Even this was possible only because one of his friends had a job kept food on the table, but it was a big fall for him. He began to drink heavily, and many of the people he knew stopped coming to visit because now it was dangerous to be seen with him. They told him that maybe if he apologized, changed his attitude, he would be all right. But he refused and continued to say whatever was on his mind.

"I understood most of this only when I was older. At the time, I just saw that life at home became very difficult. The Old Man never spoke to Roy or myself except to scold us. He would come home very late, drunk, and I could hear him shouting at Ruth, telling her to cook him food. Ruth became very bitter at how the Old Man had changed. Sometimes, when he wasn't home, she would tell Roy and myself that our father was crazy and that she pitied us for having such a father. I didn't blame her for this—I probably agreed. But I noticed that, even more than before, she treated us differently from her own two sons. She would

The Mississippi Secretary of State's Motion to Dismiss

Mississippi Secretary of State Delbert Hosemann submits this motion to dismiss the petition filed in this cause pursuant Rules 12(b)(1), 12(b)(5), and 12(b)(6).

1. Petitioner Orly Taitz is a nationally known figure whose notoriety is derived in part by her numerous unsuccessful lawsuits in which she as an attorney or party has alleged that Barack Obama is not eligible to hold the office of the President of the United States. While Taitz, a California resident, cannot vote in Mississippi's March 13 Democratic Party presidential primary, she nonetheless seeks a court order removing President Obama from the Mississippi Democratic Party's presidential primary ballot.
2. As set forth in more detail in the accompanying memorandum, Taitz's legal action is fatally flawed for multiple reasons and should be dismissed.
3. The petition is time barred pursuant to Code Section 23-15-961 because Taitz missed the deadline to file with the Circuit Court.
4. The petition fails to state a claim for mandamus as the Secretary of State has no duty under state law to determine the qualifications of a presidential candidate in connection with a primary election ballot. The Secretary of State's duty and authority with respect to presidential primaries conducted by political parties is defined by statute. Relevant to the dispute regarding President Obama, Code Section 23-15-1089 requires that

The Secretary of State shall place the name of a candidate upon the presidential preference primary ballot when the Secretary of State shall have determined that such a candidate is generally recognized throughout the United States or Mississippi as a candidate for the nomination of President of the United States.

Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-1089. Code Section 23-15-1089 authorizes the Secretary of State to make one, and only one, determination about a presidential candidate: whether he or she is “generally recognized throughout the United States or Mississippi as a candidate for the nomination of President of the United States.” If that person is generally recognized as a candidate, then the Secretary of State is required by law to place the name on the primary ballot. The statute does not authorize the Secretary of State to investigate whether a generally recognized candidate meets the qualifications established by federal law for the office. Section 23-15-1089 simply does not impose a “clear legal duty” on the Secretary of State to undertake such a review and, therefore, mandamus relief cannot be ordered.

5. The petition fails to state a claim for any relief, including declaratory and injunctive relief, against the Secretary of State. Regardless of whether the relief sought against the Secretary of State is classified as declaratory, injunctive, or in the nature of a writ of mandamus, the petition should be dismissed for failure to state a claim. State law clearly mandates the Secretary of State to place on the primary ballot every person “generally recognized throughout the United States or Mississippi as a candidate for the nomination of President of the United States.” Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-1089. State law imposes no other qualification for placement on the ballot other than to be a generally recognized candidate for the office. Since the petition does not allege that President Obama is not generally recognized as a candidate for the nomination of President, the placement of President Obama’s name on the ballot is appropriate and required under state law. The petition seeking the removal of President Obama from the primary ballot fails to state a claim as a matter of law.

6. Taitz lacks standing to pursue this action. Standing is a jurisdictional requirement necessary to invoke the authority of the judiciary. Taitz's lack of standing deprives this Court of jurisdiction.

7. The petition and summons have not been properly served on the Office of the Attorney General as required by Rule 4(d)(5). See Affidavit of Diana Ware, Exhibit A.

FOR THESE REASONS, Mississippi Secretary of State Delbert Hosemann respectfully requests that the Court enter an order dismissing Petitioner Dr. Orly Taitz's Petition and assessing all costs of this action to Petitioner.

THIS the 29th day of February, 2012.

Respectfully submitted,

Delbert Hosemann, Mississippi
